- Let game officials conduct events without interference.
- Support skilled performances and team play with generous applause.
- Demonstrate respect for opposing players and their supporters.
- Support School Sport Australia's policy of a smoke and alcohol free environment

Administrators' and Officials' Code of Behaviour

- Ensure rules, equipment, training schedules and games are safe and match the needs and skill level of the students involved.
- Ensure that equal opportunities for participation in sports are available for all students.
- Involve students in planning, evaluation and decision making.
- Ensure everyone involved, including parents, understand their responsibilities regarding fair play and appropriate behaviour.
- Encourage a positive attitude towards children's sport
 - Emphasise fun and enjoyment
 - Encourage both teams
 - Set a good example
 - Encourage the pursuit of personal excellence
- Be consistent, courteous and helpful toward all participants.
- Use common sense to ensure that the 'spirit of the game' for students is not lost by overcalling violations.
- Ensure that adequate supervision is provided by qualified and competent coaches and officials capable of developing appropriate sports behaviour and skill technique, and that these officials are given the opportunity to improve their coaching and officiating.

- Remember that children play for enjoyment, downplay the importance of rewards.
- Avoid allowing children's sports programs to become primarily spectator entertainment. Focus on the needs of the participants rather than the enjoyment of the spectators.
- Distribute a Code of Behaviour sheet to spectators, officials, parents, coaches, students and the media, and take other positive steps to ensure people understand their responsibilities regarding fair play in children's sport.
- Support School Sport Australia's policy of a smoke and alcohol free environment.

Media Code of Behaviour

- Provide coverage of children's sport as well as reporting adult sport.
- Be aware of the difference between adult's sports programs and children's sports programs.
- Children are not miniature professionals and adults should not place unfair expectations upon them.
- Place in proper perspective the isolated incidents of unsportsmanlike behaviour rather than make such incidents the "highlight" of the event.
- Focus upon student's fair play and their honest effort.
- Identify and report on the benefits of children participating in sport.
- Be aware of the difference between the goals of amateur sports and those of professional sports. Make the readers, viewers and listeners aware of these differences. Make it clear that the professional is an entertainer and wage earner and this, on occasions, may be reflected in the professional athlete's behaviour.
